

Dear RMCT Parents,

We are having a great time at camp! Lots of things including the sets, staging and costuming are coming together in our preparation for an amazing show! We are requesting that you send your child with some of the basics in order to put on the best show that we can. Below you will find character specific costume items that are essential to your child's character. Please bring clothing in a bag with your child's name clearly marked, NO LATER THAN Friday, June 20th. This is very important in order to make sure that the right costume is with the right person. When camp has ended clothes will be returned to each actor, unaltered. These are only some simple base costume pieces, and their full costume will be reviled at the time of the show!

We can't wait to keep working on these amazing shows with such talented young actors and are extremely excited to present a spectacular production of A Funny Thing Happened on The Way to The Forum in just two short weeks!
